

Portland Yacht Club Junior Sailing 2010 Code of Conduct

Sailor's Name: _____

D.O.B.: _____

The Code of Conduct is must be signed by both the Junior Sailor and his/her parent. It serves as a starting point and guideline for basic behavior as students in the PYC Junior Sailing Program. Due to its importance, no student will be allowed to participate in the PYC Junior Sailing Program without having read, understood and signed this Code of Conduct.

The Code of Conduct states:

"The primary Mission of this program is to teach youth to sail, race, and develop a lifelong love for the sport of sailing. We are committed to making sure all youth are noticed, cared for, and respected. For youth, having fun and feeling safe go hand in hand. Youth feel safe when they know their peers and coaches will treat them fairly and with respect."

- * We will treat each other fairly.
- * We will help students when they ask for help.
- * We will try to solve disagreements ourselves. If we cannot solve our disagreements ourselves, we will ask coaches or help.
- * We will take care of program boats, supplies, equipment, and physical property.
- * We will sail carefully and safely at all times.

Disciplinary Action:

Consequences for breaking program rules or the Code of Conduct.

1st Offense: Student will receive a verbal warning.

2nd Offense: Student will report to the Junior Sailing Director who will notify his/her parents. The student will stay onshore for a length of time, as determined by the Junior Sailing Director.

3rd Offense: Student will be required to leave the program for the remainder of the day, and be suspended from the program for the following full day of sailing.

4th Offense: Student will not to allowed to return to the Junior Sailing Program for the duration of that sailing season.

*Students who participate in an excessively unsafe or destructive manner may be suspended or dismissed from the program without multiple warnings.

*Students who are found using, providing, or possessing drugs or alcohol may be suspended or dismissed from the program without multiple warnings.

*We will NOT refund any tuition or fees if a student is suspended or dismissed from the PYC Junior Sailing Program.

By signing here, you indicated you have read, understood, and will comply by the Program's Code of Conduct.
